MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

THE CARE AND FEEDING OF SPEAKERS

Henry Timman, 3985 Medusa Rd., Norwalk OH 44857

Program speakers are imperative for any type of group, whether it is genealogical, fraternal, service oriented, or just social. These speakers can be obtained for a genealogical group from at least three sources: free speakers, such as a county official, public librarian, or representative of a research library or historical society; from within the group by the president assigning topics to persons skilled in that phase of research or records; and by paid speakers.

Through the years all of the above have been successful in my experience, along with another real budget "preserver," that of having show and tell programs provided by the members themselves. We often had these with a particular topic such as An Immigrant Ancestor, A Favorite Female Ancestor, The Earliest Known Ancestor, a Military Ancestor, or a roll call on "My Most Recent Genealogical Find." We also had regular Book Fair Programs where members brought research materials from their own library to share with others.

If, however, you decide to hire an outside speaker to present a program, how do you find them? The OGS Blue Book has a Speakers' Bureau section; the Newsletter has a column of future events, listing speakers for other chapters; speakers at the State Conventions or Mini Conventions are frequently available for chapter meetings; and word of mouth is a great way to learn of good speakers. Of course, not all small chapters can afford some speakers and an easy solution to that is to invite other area chapters to hold a joint meeting, sharing the expenses, so that several members can enjoy the speaker and the program.

Should you decide to contact and hire an outside speaker, there are some "do's and don't's" to keep in mind:

1. DO contact the speaker as far in advance as possible. If you telephone, it is preferable to contact them at home, rather than at work. Be prepared to follow up with a letter of confirmation, outlining everything discussed.

2. DO verify with the speaker the desired topic; length of talk; fee; and the need for any equipment, such as microphone or overhead projector. Be sure to verify whether the speaker has handouts and whether tape recording is allowed. Be sure to send a map with specific directions to the location.

3. DO give the speaker the name and phone number of a contact person, and plan to contact the speaker again a few days prior to the scheduled event as a follow-up reminder.

4. DO obtain in advance any information or photos for publicity, and verify the spelling and pronunciation of the speaker's name. If the speaker's spouse or friend is invited, make that clear in advance. Be sure your publicity includes the OGS NEWSLETTER, since that gives both your chapter and the speaker extra publicity, and he/she might obtain a future speaking engagement by being thus advertised.

5. At the meeting, have accessories ready in advance; ensure prompt delivery of the fee; and try to free up the speaker after the meeting in case he/she would like some refreshments or would like to take a break after the lecture. If the speaker's spouse or friend will attend, it helps when a "greeter" is assigned to that person, so that the guest doesn't feel completely left out.

6. DO consider that a speaker coming from a distance may need a meal before or after the meeting. Assign a host or hostess to the speaker whose sole duty is to smooth the way for the speaker. These duties may include chauffering, providing meals and hotel or housing, particularly if your guest lecturer comes a considerable distance by air or by car. If your speaker is also selling books, it would be considerate to ask if the speaker needs assistance from local members, either with selling or with moving boxes.

There are also some DON'T'S to be observed:

1. DON'T ask the speaker at the meeting what the fee is to be, and don't discuss its propriety within earshot of the speaker. You are, after all, paying for that person's time and expertise.

2. DON'T ask the speaker to introduce himself/herself.

3. DON'T run the speaker around the room introducing him/her to everyone present. Chances are the speaker won't remember the names anyway.

4. DON'T object if the speaker asks to give the program at the start of the meeting, so that he/she may leave before the business meeting. Business is important, but not to a person who has to drive home and go to work the next day!

Probably many of the problems which speakers encounter are not from malice, but from lack of thinking out the situation. Speakers are under no obligation to present a program just because you want them to, and most of them honestly need the fee that they ask. I can certainly show that I am not a wealthy man, and I at least need to cover the expense of driving my automobile to your meeting place and home again.

THE CARE AND FEEDING OF SPEAKERS

Good publicity is also imperative no matter what type of meeting you are having. Almost every advertised program draws in outsiders who are potential members. It also lets the world know that the speaker does give programs and may mean future business for the speaker.

There is one other favor that any group can confer on a speaker, and that is to ensure that some boorish member who has a habit of interrupting does not do so. This is very distracting to a speaker. Likewise, it is very distracting when small conversations take place in the audience while the speaker is presenting the program. If these people don't want to be there, they should remove themselves from the room.

The other side of the coin in this article is that the speaker also has on obligation to arrive promptly; to present a quality program within the allotted time, and of a respectable length; and to answer all questions after the meeting. It is impossible to know in advance whether the speaker is as good as "touted" but it is easy to check with another group where he or she has spoken before, and learn whether that group was satisfied with the presentation.

In conclusion, I want to say that these thoughts and ideas are based on more than twenty years of experience as a speaker in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. Obviously, I enjoy genealogy and history talks, and I firmly believe that some of my points will make the experience even more rewarding for all concerned. After all, the bottom line to the whole business is to promote and encourage the study of genealogy at every level.

A PARTIAL HISTORY OF SOME OF OUR ANCESTORS: DEMORET AND BENNETT

Naomi Hall Talmadge, 9 Orchard Street, Wellesley Hills MA 02181

My great-great grandfather DeMoret came from France to America and settled in New Jersey about the beginning of the Revolutionary War, 1775. His wife soon died leaving him a son, Nicholas, then about 15 years old. He lived single for a long time, but as he had no relatives in New Jersey and the Indians were hostile, and the settlers had to be continually driving them back, of course the child fell into the hands of strangers. The father, wishing to have the child well cared for, married a second time and had one daughter, Jane Demoret.

Nicholas fought a great deal in the Revolutionary War, but I know not how long. After he came home to his wife and children, he was out hunting one day and was either killed or taken prisoner by the Indians. It is not known which. At any rate, he was never heard of again. The wife soon died also, leaving the two children in the hands of strangers.

The son, Nicholas, was ingenious and became a wagon-maker. He worked at the trade awhile and gathered together a little money. He then married LYDIA BENNETT. He continued working at this trade for awhile, but becoming tired of that he moved to Pennsylvania and settled on the Blue Mountains as a farmer. Being of a discontented disposition, he resolved to go father west. He got three families of his wife's relatives together and embarked on the Ohio River in nothing but a flat boat, which Nicholas himself had made. They drifted along for a few days, when a sudden change in the weather took place. The river began to freeze over and they thought it best to stop. The only way of stopping was for the men to catch hold of the limbs of the trees that extended over the banks of the river. They finally got the boat stopped and fastened to the shore. Then they unloaded their furniture, consisting of bed steads, chairs, cupboards, etc. They formed a sort of a house with the cupboards, which they covered with quilts for a roof.

The river remained frozen over for six weeks and they were obliged to stay there. There were a great many Indians not far off but they did not come that way. A dog visited their camp one night and sat by the fire and barked a long while. The little group was very much alarmed lest the Indians were close by, but they were not disturbed. At last the ice became melted and in a few days the river was again navigable. They started at once as they were about out of provisions and were anxious to reach Cincinnati, which was then a small village. Here Nicholas purchased fifteen acres of land and settled on it. Cincinnati now covers the land. Main Street is about the center of it. Nicholas farmed a while, worked a little at his trade, burnt brick, and started up a tanyard. Land began to bring a good price, lots sold pretty well and Nicholas decided to sell out and buy a large farm. He bought a farm in Butler County, built a grist mill, a cooper shop, wagon maker shop, still house, and a store, and entered into a lively business. He died leaving his wife with twelve children. The wife, Lydia DeMoret, lived to be 93 years of age.

Nicholas DeMoret & Lydia Bennett were married Dec.24, 1795.
Dec.23rd, 1795, Nicholas was 35 years old
Jan 7th, 1796, Lydia was 22 years old.

Their children are as follows:

|---|---|
| LEWIS P. | b 12 Dec 1796 (d 17 Nov 1853) |
| SAMUEL B. | b 8 Jly 1798 (d 10 Oct 1887) |

| JANE | b 14 Oct 1817 (d 16 Jan 1896) |
| LYDIA | b 11 Jan 1820 d 28 Jly 1898 |

The last named child was my grandmother, Lydia DeMoret Williams.

My other great-great grandfather, SAMUEL BENNETT, was also of French descent and lived in New Jersey. He fought all through the Revolutionary War and after it was over he had to hide for months in the swamps and thickets to avoid being killed by the Tories, who visited his house every day. Dick Bird, the leader of the Tories, would order Samuel's wife to cook them the best she had, which she dared not refuse to do. They would stay all day sometimes, and shoot at a mark, waiting for Samuel to come home.

Samuel's wife's name was SILENCE PLATT, by whom he had eight children: SAMUEL, ABEL, RACHEL, JOHN, LYDIA, PHOEBE, LOUIS, and MARY.

(This story was written by a granddaughter of Lydia DeMoret Williams, 1820-1898)

At the DEMORET FAMILY REUNION held in Hamilton, Ohio, in April 1989, information was shared about the first DeMorets to come to America. There are several versions of the story, with similarities and yet with significant differences. Above is one version, written many years ago. I have added some death dates in parentheses.

Can anyone confirm, correct or add to the information in this story? Were the DeMorets and/or Bennetts French Huguenots as some of us have been told? Did the first DeMoret come to America with Lafayette, as some say? What happened to Nicholas's half-sister, Jane --- whom did she marry and did she remain in New Jersey?

Any information will be much appreciated and shared with others. ---Naomi Hall Talmadge, descendant of Samuel B. DeMoret, above.

JOURNAL OF DR. HENRY VIGOR

Indexed by Kay Hudson

Henry Vigor was born in Frome, Somersetshire, England in 1821. After trying several careers in England, he emmigrated to the United States. He worked at various occupations in New Jersey and Pennsylvania and came to Ohio in 1847. Henry then studied medicine in Coolville, Athens County and attended medical lectures in Cincinatti.

Moving with his family to an area north of Columbus, he began to practice medicine mainly in Licking and Union Counties. Several of the towns mentioned in his journal are Brandon, Etna, Patascala, Columbia Centre, Kirkersville, Reynoldsburg, Broadway, Pharisburg, Waterloo(Fayette County-now called Pancoastburg), Cumberland, Bokes Creek, Jersey, and Amon Centre. He also returned to Pennsylvania for a short period and listed patients in his journal as being from Pulaski, PA.

Dr. Vigor and his wife, Joanna Carey(a native of New Jersey), were the parents of twelve children: John Henry, Frederick Augustus, Franklin, James Franklin, Emma Louise, George Edwin, Edwin Hastings, Ida Maritta, William Carey, Charles Ezra, George, and Alice D. Henry died in 1910 and is buried at Brandon, OH.

Henry Vigor kept an accurate journal of his patients. The first section of this journal dates from 1859 to 1873. The second section dates from 1884 to 1889. I have attempted to index the journal by last name only. I have also indicated those names that are from Pennsylvania. Names that could not be deciphered are listed as "Unreadable" and page numbers are given.

The original journal is in the possession of Henry's decendant, Eugene Vannatta of Columbus. It was brought to the attention of OGS by another decendant, Carol Johnson of Butler, OH. A photocopy of the journal has been given to the OGS library. The journal also contains information on the Vigor family as given to me by Mrs.Johnson.

Genealogists searching Union or Licking Counties in that time period might be surprised to find their ancestor being treated with "one pint of wiskey" at a cost of 60 cents. The bill was usually paid in cash but occasionally Dr. Vigor accepted goods or firewood. Because of the accurate records kept by Dr. Vigor, researchers should be able to fix dates of residence and perhaps names of family members.

LIFE SKETCH OF HENRY VIGOR
(Copied from one written by himself)

Born Jan 24th 1821
Henry Vigor was born at Frome Somerset Co. England. He was the oldest of 3 children. His mother died when he was 6 years of age. Father then quit housekeeping and the three children was divided, and without a home. I was put into the county infermary. Elizabeth was an infant cared for by an Aunt (Esther Hart). I don't know who cared for Frederic my brother but he grew to manhood, joined the army and died a soldier in Africa.

Father being discouraged became a tramping tailor and after one year came and took me out of the infermary to go around with him. After a few years of hardship sometimes sleeping under a hedge and eating only a crust of bread, I was left with a tailor to learn that trade at Marsal in Staffordshire. The family used me so harsh that in less than 2 years I absconded from there and tramped to various places alone. I did not know what had become of my father at that time. I had to tramp around to seek for sustenance. I found work in several different places and as jobs gave out I had to move on to some other town to get employment at my trade. I traveled into the north of England and to Edinburgh and Glasco in Scotland. Not finding work there and wishing to be back in England once more my cheapest way was to cross into Belfast ireland. I got to work and staid all winter in Bainbridge.

In the Spring work giving out I sailed to Liverpool England going from place to place to find employment. No friendly house to afford shelter for a day or night (unreadable). I was informed that America was a good country to find work and determined to try it. Left Liverpool and after 6 weeks ... journey landed in New York Dec 27" 1840, with only a soverign in my pocket equal to $5 in gold and accidentally lost that out of my pocket into the bay. Now I was in a strange country to me and no money in hand. I went to Patterson N.J. 16 miles on foot with a fellow that was going there who had been a fellow passenger on the boat with me I could get no job in that town. But being put up at a boarding house I made clothing for them. Sitting in the barroom to do the work. After that was all done I went back to New York. There I saw an advertisement in a paper that Mr. Armstrong of Madison N. Jersey wanted a tailor to work for him by the week. I went there and got the job staying two years. The man had a family that spent all he made very little came to me so I left and came to Philadelphia.

There I found work & in 2 years went back to Liverpool Eng worked around there until able to pay my way back in the winter again to Phila - and worked there two years. While working in Madison I became acquainted with Joanne Carey and married her after my return from England on Aug. 16" 1845 at Orange New Jersey by Rev. White. We then moved to Philadelphia and from there to Ohio in 1847 made our home first at Coolville Athens Co for several years. There I studied medecine and went to Cincinatti to attend a course of medical lectures. I first practised in Ind. a poor place. Next year came to Newark Ohio. There I was laid low with Typhoid Fever. After recovery went to Jersey and from there to Etna licking Co practised there for several years. After that moved to Pancoastburg Fayette Co O. during the war. Moved to Broadway on a farm Oct 7 1864 then to Pharisburg & back to Broadway. After a few years went to Pulaski Lawrence Co Pa. 1 yr. Then to Galion O. about 3 yrs. Thence to Brandon Knox Co at which place we have lived over 20 yrs.

Now why did I wander so much about? I cannot tell but think I have inherited a wandering disposition to seek a better location than I had. How did I have means to go about so much and finally able to buy a home and all this time provide for a large family and still pay all honest dues. I have done it by industry and strict economy and self denial of luxuries. Now all sewing was done by hand when I was young and at night I worked by the light of the tallow candle no other lights ...no railroads. If we wanted to move go on foot or by wagon. Now I have lived through the struggle of former days without any aid from friends or education save three mos of school in my childhood and have attained to 80 years of age. I am truly astonished at my preservation. There is certainly a reason for all things. And I am sure a plain abstemious diet hav preserved me from dispepsia. My equable temperament has conserved my nerves and governed my cardiac movements smoothly. I have a delicate constitution but it is remarkable the amount of abuse it has endured. All our branch of Vigors were tailors by occupation. I did not know of any other family of the name but it appears there are some and they likely are of the same stock originally. My Grandmother (my fathers mother) was a Lawrence and her father or grandfather commanded a war vessel in the war of the lakes and it may be the St. Lawrence was named for him. My information in that regard is limited. My mother worked at weaving broadcloth & cashmere in Frome, Eng. when she was a girl. Frome was a town of cloth manufacturing at that day.

OF THE

UNION VETERAN LEGION

1897

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Union Veteran Legion

By Its First National Commander

A. B. Hay

There was a period in the history of the Union Veteran Legion when it seemed almost necessary to apologize for the organization of the order. Many claimed it was antagonistic to the other soldier organizations. But after a lapse of more than eleven years since its formation, no one can point to a solitary act, on the part of the Legion, which has shown it to have been in opposition to, or not in sympathy with, all other soldier organizations which have sprung into existence since the War of the Rebellion. Why the motives of those who organized, or those who joined the Legion, should ever have been called into question, seems wondrous strange. Sure it is, no honest man can, and none ever did, call into question the motive which prompted these same men, when, without thought of reward, with nothing to prompt them but love of country, right and liberty, they hastened to the protection of the Union prior to July 1, 1863, until that period no imputation could be cast on anyone that he had enlisted in the service of his Government from mercenary motive or through fear of being compelled to do so by what was called the draft. Their patriotism was not measured by any term, but they volunteered for the longest period desired by the Government, three years or during the war. Why, then, may be asked, was the Union Veteran Legion organized, by whom, when, and where? On March 31, 1884, in the law office of A. B. Hay, in the city of Pittsburg, his comrades, Gen. A. L. Pearson, Maj. W. W. Tyson, Capt. Samuel Harper, Capt. David Lowery, and myself, being imbued with the idea that an organization should be formed composed of none but real soldiers, who had seen active service for a long period, and who had served their country from none other than patriotic motives, and where all who entered should be and had been comrades, not alone in name, but also in fact, met and founded our cherished order, now so highly prized by the true veterans all over the Union who have become conversant with the aims, principles, character and objects of the U. V. L. Would anyone familiar with the names and records of the founders of the U. V. L. believe that our organization was formed in opposition to the G. A. R.? All of the organizers were active workers in the G. A. R. One had been the first member in Pennsylvania mustered into the G. A. R.; two of them were Past Commanders of the Department of Pennsylvania in the same order; perhaps three-fourths of the members of the U. V. L. are also members of the G. A. R. We said then, and we say now, God speed and prosper all the organizations formed by the boys in blue, for there is grand work and plenty of it for all such organizations. After the formation of the Legion the usual difficulties had to be met and questions decided before our Order was firmly established on the solid basis on which it now rests. At the outset our rules required that a comrade, to be eligible to membership, must have served at least two years, unless discharged for wounds or disabilities. It was but a short time until this rule was so amended that an applicant, to be eligible for membership, must have volunteered prior to the order for the first draft, and have served two continuous years, unless discharged for wounds received in line of duty, thus rendering ineligible those discharged for disability who had not served the requisite period. Comrade Lowery (one of the organizers), whose heart was fully in the cause, and who served within two months of the required two years, and had been discharged for disability, from which he still suffers, himself advocated the amendment and resigned his membership, claiming that under the former rule our doors would be thrown wide open to many of the veriest cowards, who escaped from the service under the plea of disability when the real disease was cowardice. Thus our Order, instead of becoming more lax in its rules of admission, not desiring large membership alone, has steadily pursued the original idea to have and maintain an organization where patriotism, service, and bravery shall be distinctive features.

Encampment No. 1 was duly chartered by the Court of Common Pleas No. 1 of Alleghany County (two of the judges of which court were among its earliest members), and its officers were constituted the national officers of the Order until the formation of the National Encampment, on the 17th day of November, 1886, at Pittsburg, Pa., at which time 12 encampments had been formed in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, and Massachusetts. To-day it has spread into almost every State in the North, East, and West, with 142 encampments and a membership of almost 20,000, but two black balls being necessary to reject any applicant, and it being obligatory upon any comrade to black-ball anyone whose character as a soldier is not above suspicion, and whose record as a citizen is not clear. We can proudly say that the personnel of our Order will favorably compare with that of any organization.

The Objects of the U. V. L.

First—The cultivation of true devotion to American Government and institutions.

Second—The moral, social, and intellectual improvement of its members, and the relief of their widows and orphans, in sickness and distress.

Third—The preservation of friendly relations among those who fought for the preservation of the Union.

Fourth—By the personal example and influence of its members to perpetuate the three great principles of the Union Veteran Legion—Fraternity, Charity, and Patriotism.

Fifth—All things being equal, to give preference to its members in all business relations, and to assist them as far as possible in all honorable ways.

The Qualifications for Membership

Are, that the applicant must have been an officer, soldier, sailor, or marine of the Union Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the War of the Rebellion, who volunteered prior to July 1, 1863, for a term of three years, and were honorably discharged for any cause after a term of service of at least two continuous years, or were at any time discharged by reason of wounds received in line of duty. Also those who volunteered for a term of two years prior to July 22, 1861, and served their full term of enlistment, without discharge for wounds received in line of duty, but no drafted person nor substitute, nor anyone who has at any time borne arms against the United States is eligible.

Its name clearly indicates, and its membership proves, that the organization is a union of veterans. During the war the government deemed only those as veterans who had served at least two years, and while all who in any manner, and for any term served or assisted our government in the suppression of that most gigantic Rebellion, and the preservation of the Union, are and should be entitled to the full measure of praise and reward for all that they did. Still men did not become veterans in a day or tried comrades in a month; ties of friendship and ties of comradeship were made and formed during long years of bitter trials and sufferings which cannot and should not be broken and forgotten, and which cannot be adequately appreciated by those who were not participants in them.

Our interests were common in those dark days, from 1861 to 1865, and many of them are common now. Can these be better served and preserved acting separately as individuals, or acting as a unit in one grand and mighty organization; many flattering promises were made in the early days of the war by silver-tongued orators in behalf of patriotic citizens, that those who volunteered to protect the Union need have but little thought of the future, and the positions left vacant by them would be retained for them. If they fell in defense of their country their families would be cared for, and while much has been done by our government for its disabled soldiers and the families of its heroic dead; to the old soldier and to soldiers' organizations, and to the political influence of the surviving veterans more than to all things else, belongs the credit of all the legislation in their behalf. The true veteran's work is not done until they have received all to which they are justly entitled, and their widows and orphans protected from want and penury. The soldiers were strong in war, not so much because of individual bravery, as because of complete and effective organization and skillful direction, and they will only be powerful for good in time of peace, when firmly united and actuated by a common purpose, and working as one man for the good of all. The Badge, the Shield, the insignia of membership in our Order, and worn by our comrades, is an emblem of defense, and indicates them as the nation's defenders when its unity was assailed, and is also emblematic of their determination to ever protect and defend the rights of their comrades, and shield the widows and orphans of their fallen comrades.

Our ranks can be recruited from but a very limited class of the citizens of this Republic; there are many qualified by service and merit to still come into our Order. Whatever of good our beloved Order can accomplish must be done in a few short years, the ranks of those eligible to membership are being rapidly decimated with none to take their places, we can have no successors. Let us then for the few remaining years allotted to us stand shoulder to shoulder and bravely exemplify to the world the cherished principles of the Union Veteran Legion, Fraternity, Charity, and Patriotism, and may each one's epitaph be: "He served his country, and did his whole duty."

OBITUARY

HENNEY - Died, Feb. 13, 1873, Peter HENNEY, aged 82 years, 6 months and 13 days. In the year 1817 he was joined in marriage to Christina STRAYER, with whom he lived 58 years, a peaceable and happy life. She preceded him nearly three years to the glory world. He was one of the pioneers of Wayne Cty. Oh., having settled in Congress township in the year 1815, when the country was quite new, in fact a wilderness, inhabited by the Red men of the forest. After forty years he sold his home and emigrated to Henry Cty., Ill. Sometime in October he came back from Illinois to visit his two daughters in Wayne Cty. On the evening of Feb. 12, while staying with his daughter and son-in-law (John HINES) he retired to his room at night in apparent good health. The next morning he rose from his bed, lit the lamp and dressed himself and wound his watch. His daughter, Mrs. HINES, heard a noise as the moving of a chair in the room, she went to the room and found him dead, kneeling at a chair in the attitude of prayer, his head resting on his arm, which was his custom from the time he embraced religion. He leaves 7 children, 40 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren. Before his death he bequeathed $100. for missionary purposes to the Ev. Association, also the same amount to the U.B. Church. His remains were taken to Henry Co., Ill. for interment.

NAMES FOUND ON SALE OF ESTATE OF WYLLS PIERSON, WARREN CO., OHIO

The compiler has photocopies of the inventory and sale of Goods and Chattels of Wyllys PIERSON of Warren County, Ohio, as well as a typed copy of his Will, made by compiler 3 Feb 1984, because the copy sent by the Warren County clerk was deteriorating badly. The official copy is in Warren Co. Probate Records, Liber VII, p. 419.

Although signed "Willys Pierson," in the body of the Will we find it spelled "Willys". The Will is not dated but was proved in Warren Co., OH in 1833. He names his wife as Nancy and leaves to her and her heirs and assigns his home, situated on the "East side of Broadway" in Lebanon, and "all the furniture, kitchen utencils, beds and bedding," which she had brought to their marriage, plus some of the china and silverware and one hundred dollars. From this we may guess that Nancy was not the mother of his children, also named: George, John, Polly STOWELL, Moses, Jane HELMICK and Aaron. He also named his grandson, Wyllys P. STOWELL.

Burial records for the Methodist Cemetery, Turtle Creek Twp., Lebanon, give us more data about him and his first wife Mary. She was buried in 1827, aged 50 years, and therefore born ca 1777. He was buried in 1833, aged 61 years and therefore born ca 1772. These records prove that the above Nancy was his second wife. It is unfortunate that we do not know the maiden name of either wife.

The sale of his estate gives slightly differing names for two of his sons, as follow: George D. and Aaron W. The names of Polly STOWELL and Jane HELMICK do not appear as purchasers, but those of Ebed STOWELL and Harry WHITE do, and they are named in the division of the estate, so they must have been husbands of the girls. Data also included in these papers show that Aaron W, PIERSON was deceased at the termination of this probate, in the August term of the Court, and his widow, Sarah, who was executrix of his estate, (as found in Vol. 7) made the final distribution to the heirs of Wyllys. Sarah's accounting to the court was made 13 June 1853.

All of these items, and more, have survived and may be found in the Local History and Genealogy Department of the Warren-Trumbull County Public Library.

WHAT KIND OF MATERIAL CAN YOU FIND FOR YOUR FAMILIES ?????

HARDING HIGH TO CELEBRATE— It was an uphill battle for the Warren schools to get the electorate to approve a $926,000 bond issue for buying the site and building and equipping Warren G. Harding High School, but the issue passed in 1923 after three attempts and the classic structure was dedicated in 1926. School officials are preparing to stage a series of events in connection with the school's 50th anniversary next school year. The antique Fords in the photo indicate the photo was snapped not long after school was built. Then-bare lawn is now tree-filled.

PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY BY THE STUDENTS OF WARREN, OHIO, HIGH SCHOOL

VOL. I NO. 1 DECEMBER 16, 1910 5c THE COPY

BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION

In the autumn of 1902, the students of Warren High School met and organized a monthly magazine, naming it the CAULDRON. For seven years this publication continued, being kept alive only by the patriotic support of the student body and the untiring patience of the editors and business managers, all of whom took great and just pride in their work. Last year with the publication of one magazine it became evident to the Cauldron promoters that, on account of the increased cost of printing, so large a paper was no longer practical and the project was dropped for the remainder of the term. This year the [illegible]

Football Review 1910

This season Warren High School was represented by one of the strongest teams in the history of the School. The fact that the team won but three of the eight games played is not a discredit to it, or to any of the players, as they showed good form and team work in almost every game.

As several of the last year's players were expected to return, a heavy schedule was prepared, which was too difficult for the team which did finally represent the school. Three more easy games were scheduled to be played at home but all were cancelled so the team was forced to play heavier teams away from home.

EDITORIAL.

THE fall of the year is always the most dreary time, and the fall of 1902 has been no exception. It is a time of long good-bys—good-bye to the bright, pleasant days of summer and early fall, to the sports of warmer days, to many pleasures, in fact, and having taken away all these things it leaves little to interest us. The leaves, once beautiful, now lay in soggy, dirty piles; the wind blows fiercely through the barren trees; the rain is icy cold, and chills us through and through. Then the snow comes and covers with its mantle the woods and fields, so desolate and bare. From such a stage, with such a setting, we beg leave to make our bow. The stage is dull, the setting uninteresting —let us hope that the player is not.

DENA HARSHMAN

"She is meekness itself."

Miss Harshman came this year from Mineral Ridge and so we have seen but little of her. She attends most strictly to studies.

FLORENCE HART, "Flossie"

Florence, a reader of merit, a piano player of skill, and a loyal member of W. H. S., has been of great help to the Senior Class.

MARVIN HART

"Serene, sedate, smiling, sans—care."

Studies little, with us long, and little more do we know of him.

MAURICE EUGENE HILLMAN, "Chip"

"With smiling face and jaunty walk."

"Chip" has been here four years for near-study and one for football's sake. He believes class rooms are for pleasure first, studies later, and zeros soon.

MILDRED HOAGLAND, "Milly"

"Silence reigns supreme."

We do not know a great deal about Miss Hoagland for she has been exceedingly quiet. We trust she will develop into a school teacher.

WHICH JACOB RISSER IN EARLY OHIO?

When family naming customs called for the same names over and over, the many bearers of these names often become difficult to distinguish from each other. So it was with the name 'Jacob Risser' in early Ohio. All emigrated through Cleveland, Canal Fulton or Ashland Co., Ohio, and all were descended from Hans Risser, a Mennonite of Swiss heritage, who had settled in Friedelsheim, Pfalz, Germany, in 1711.[1] He had married and raised four sons: Peter, Johannes, Jacob and Abraham.[2,3] These sons, and their sons for several more generations, tended to name their eldest son after the child's paternal grandfather, the second after the maternal grandfather, and the third after the father, if that name had not already been used. Additional sons were named after close relatives and friends. This custom changed as the immigrants grew further away from their German heritage, and as the 1800s brought into popularity a new group of names. The naming of daughters was less rigid. They are not listed below, but are allowed for in the numbering system.

Peter, the eldest son, was number 1 on the family numbering chart. He immigrated to Lancaster County, PA in 1739, with his wife, small daughter, infant son Johannes #12 (1 to show that his father was Peter the eldest child, and 2 to show that this Johannes was the second child), and father-in-law Christian Hershey. Peter's second son was subsequently named Christian 16, as there were three daughters between the first two sons. The third son was Peter 17, the fourth was Abraham 18, and the last was Jacob 1a (as he was the tenth child and alphabet letters indicated the order past the number 9).[3,4,5,6] Some of his descendents moved to Ohio in the 1800s.

The second son of Hans was Johannes #2, who is believed to have had 7 children.[4] He remained in Germany, but moved a few kilometers away from Friedelsheim and in time loosened his ties with the Mennonite community. There was a son Johannes 2x, but the names of his other children are not known for sure.[6,8] (Since the exact order of the children is not known, an 'x' is used to indicate the generation.) Johannes had Johannes 2x1 who 'ran away'[6] to Philadelphia, PA (he has not been traced), Abraham 2x2 and Heinrich 2x3.[8] This may not be a complete list.

Abraham 2x2 immigrated in 1836, following his children who had come to Ohio with relatives from Friedelsheim in 1833.[8,10,11] The children were Johannes 2x22 who died about 1835, Jacob 2x221 who lived in Mansfield, OH, and Henry 2x223 who moved to Madison, IL.

Abraham's son Abraham 2x23 immigrated in 1855, also later than most of his children. His sons were Abraham 2x231 who farmed in Canandaigua, NY; John 2x234 who died in Germany; Jacob 2x234 who was a merchant in Columbus Grove, OH; Daniel 2x235 who farmed at Vaughnsville, OH; Henry 2x236 who had a green house in

Lima, OH; David 2x237 who farmed at Pandora, OH; Christian 2x238 who farmed at Columbus Grove, OH; and Louis 2x239 who died in Germany. None of these sons had a Jacob that survived infancy.[8]

Jacob 2x27 had Gustavus Adolphus 2x271 and John 2x272; they moved to Des Moines, IA. Christian 2x2a died young. Christian Krehbiel 2x2b had Charles 2x2b4, Edward 2x2b5, William 2x2b6, and John 2x2b7. Daniel 2x2c lived in Ashland, OH and had Julius 2x2c1, Richard 2x2c2, and Daniel 2x2c4.[8]

Heinrich 2x3 did not immigrate but most of his children did. They were Jacob 2x31 who had two daughters and moved to Dubuque, IA; Abraham #2x33 who is beleived to have died in Germany; Christian 2x34 who lived in Cleveland and had Frederich 2x341, Jacob 2x342, Otto 2x344 and Ernst 2x345; Heinrich 2x35 who died in Germany; John 2x348 who had Henry 2x351, John 2x352, Christian 2x353, Lewis 2x354, Gustave Adolph 2x357, Alfred 2x358 and Robert Nathan 2x359; and Daniel 2x3a who was killed in the Civil War.[8]

The third son of Hans, Jacob 3, shows an early deviation from the naming pattern. His only known son was named Jacob 31, who named his sons Johannes 311 who had no issue; Jacob 312; Daniel 313; and Peter 314.[12]

Jacob 312 was a cooper and immigrated to Cleveland, OH in 1836 with sons Johannes 3122 (family not known), Jacob 3123, Abraham 3124 (family not known) and Daniel 3125. Jacob 3123's sons were Daniel 31231 who went to Lee Co., IA and then Lincoln, NB; Jacob 31232 who lived in Iowa and had no know sons; and Ted 31234 who also lived in Iowa.[10,11,13] Daniel 3125 lived in Iowa and then Wabash, IN. His sons were Clarence 31252 and Omer 31532.[19,20]

Daniel 313 had Jacob 3132 and moved to West Point, IA. Jacob 3132's sons were Daniel Fredrich 31321, Johannes 31322, Jacob 31322 and Abraham 31324.[4]

Peter 314 lived in Friedelsheim, Germany. His son Abraham Jacob 3141 emmigrated in 1844 to Iowa and had Peter Wilhelm 31411 and Herman August 31412. Johnnes 3142 immigrated to Cleveland, OH in 1881 with sons Jacob B. 31421 and Christian 31422. They later moved to Nebraska. Jacob 3143 remained in Friedelsheim. David 3144 immigrated 1853 to Iowa and had Louis 31444 and William 31445. Heinrich 3145 and Peter 3147 had no sons.[4,10,11]

The youngest son of Hans was Abraham #4. He named his sons Johannes 42, Daniel 44, and Abraham 45.[6,14]

Johannes 42 had Abraham 421, Johannes 422 (the maternal grandfather was also Johannes), Daniel 423, Jacob 425, and Peter 427.[4,6,14]

Abraham 421 had Johannes 4211 who was a well known Mennonite minister at Sembach, Germany. Both of his sons were named

Hermann 42114 (died young) and Hermann 42115. The latter immigrated but his family is not known. Jacob 4212 immigrated to Ashland County, OH about 1840, and then to Henry County, OH in 1850, where he soon died. His son was George 42121. Daniel 4213 (no issue) and Abraham 4214 remained in Germany.[4,13]

Johannes 422 was also a Mennonite minister, and immigrated in 1832 to Richland County, OH. His first son was John 4222, a merchant in Illinois; Jacob 4223 who died young; Jacob 4224 who died when a young man; Abraham 4225 who died when a young man; Peter 4226 who moved to Illinois; Daniel 4227 who lived in Ohio; and David 422c who moved to Illinois. None gave their sons the traditional family names.[4,6,10,11,13,14]

VIENNA TOWNSHIP, TRUMBULL COUNTY: EARMARKS, 1806-1844

A Township Trustee's book with the title "Animal's Artificial Mark Register for Vienna Township" has been preserved and is now in private hands. The work covers 10 Apr 1806 to 20 Sep 1844, and records, by use of a drawing, the marks used to identify each person's cattle. Usually there were no cleared pastures and no secure fencing, so animals often wandered away from their home base. A true owner could reclaim his animal by matching the animal's mark to this register.

In addition, this very early record may serve as a means of proving a date when the individual was living in the township. Certainly, many of these pre-1820 records may help to establish first families of Ohio pioneers. A photocopy of the original record is available at the Warren-Trumbull County Public Library, 444 Mahoning Ave. NW, Warren OH 44483. Copies may be obtained for a small fee.

SOME WATKINS FAMILIES OF VIRGINIA AND THEIR KIN: ABBOT, ANDERSON, BASS, CLAY, COX, FARRAR, HANCOCK, HUNDLEY, MONTAGUE, MOSELEY, RANDOLPH, WALTHALL, WOOLDRIDGE. By John Hale Stutesman. Published by Gateway Press. Order from author: 305 Spruce St., San Francisco, CA 94118. $30.00 postage included. 588 pp. Hard Cover. Index. Maps.

The author has written a well-organized genealogy on Henry Watkins (1638-1715) of Henrico Co., Virginia and his descendants. He had compiled more than the names and dates for the people he has researched by adding information on their communities, historical settings, and beliefs. The line of Watkins family the author traced stayed in Virginia until recent years.

This is a history of William Printup, an early resident of the Mohawk Valley, New Jersey and of his son, William, Jr. who was an interpreter for Sir William Johnson. The authors follow the family from New York to Ohio, Wisconsin, and Georgia, covering thirteen generations and 1500 descendants. They have included some useful appendices which list cemetery burials, addresses of deceased and living descendants, and information on the Indian connection. They have also documented their research by publishing over 150 pages of transcribed sources such as deeds, wills, and letters.
